CR. NO. CR. NO. 2:06cr075-

United States' Response to Pro Se Motion to Modify Conditions

Goldsmith's pro se motion to modify conditions of his sentence should be denied because the motion is now moot. As is evidenced in Goldsmith's most recent letter to the Court, see DE #37-2, Goldsmith now desires to complete the program at The Lighthouse of Tallapoosa County. Moreover, even if this were not the case, he should be required to do so. Since being released from prison on April 9, 2007, Goldsmith has tested positive for cocaine use at least four times. He also has a long history of cocaine use and of failed drug treatment programs. His desire to turn over a new leaf should be lauded, and he should be permitted to complete his drug treatment.

Respectfully submitted this 30th day of November, 2007.
